

Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Skills Summer School

Monday 25th to Friday 29th July 2016

Organized by The Centre for Trust, Peace and Social Relations at Coventry University, in partnership with Kadir Has University, we are pleased to present the fourth Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Skills Summer School 2016. The programme will take place in the heart of Istanbul at Kadir Has University's Cibali Campus, between Monday the 25th - Friday 29th of July 2016.

The Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Skills Summer School is an experiential skills-building workshop on conflict resolution, which provides an introduction to conflict analysis, as well as range of skills that are needed to resolve conflict effectively, including communication, negotiation, and personal and situational awareness. We offer insights into the dynamics of conflict at all levels, from personal to global and provide conflict resolution methods which can be used in a range of home, work and community contexts.

Our summer schools cater to a wide range of participants – from advanced-year undergraduate students, graduate students, and non-academic professionals. At the end of a successful participation, a Certificate of Attendance will be provided by Kadir Has University and Coventry University.

You will be enjoying a week full of training on conflict resolution and peacebuilding skills in the historical metropole of Istanbul.

We are very much looking forward to hear from you.

Please forward your inquiries about the workshop to Neslihan Ozfaris at ab7039@coventry.ac.uk